CITY INTELLIGENCE.

FRIDAY, June 24.
COURT CALENDAR FOR THIS DAY, June 25.—
SUPERIOR COURT—No. 35, 43, 50, 53, 55, 56.

COURT FOR THE CORRECTION OF ERRORS.—
The Lieutenant Governor in the Chair.

The case of Townsend, and others, vs. Hubbard & Orcutt, relative to the purchase of some lots at Syracuse, was called up, and Mr. Vanderpoel heard for the plaintiffs in error.

In the SUPERIOR Court an action was brought by Powell & Mills against the American Insurance Company to recover $2,000, which was incurred in the event of total loss on the packet schooner Oliver, which was stranded outside of Cape Fear river on her passage to Wilmington, N.C. It was shown that the large sum required to repair her authorized as abandonment by the owners, and the jury found for plaintiff.

In the same Court Edward Mireland brought an action against the Merchants Exchange Company to recover a balance of $1,000 due on a contract for furnishing the Italian marble used for the interior decorations of the Exchange building. The Company claimed a large set off for expense incurred by them in having to send to Liverpool for the materials which had been sent to New York, and the court agreed not to allow it, as the amount was small.

No previous notice to plead school had been made, and the jury found for plaintiff.

COURT OF SESSIONS.—Before the Recorder, Judges Lynch and Neal, and Alderman Smith.

CONCURRENCE ON THE TRIAL OF GEORGE FOX FOWLER.

The testimony and summing up in this case have been concluded on Thursday night, at the opening of the Court this morning. His Honor the Recorder proceeded to charge the Jury at length in an able and perspicuous manner, recapitulating the prominent facts of the case, comparing the testimony pro and con, pointing out the discrepancies in the testimony of the principal witnesses. He concluded with a charge to the Jury, that they must submit their verdict to the decision of the law, and submitted to the decision of the Jury the question of the innocence of the prisoner. The Jury then retired, and after a short absence returned into Court with a verdict of guilty. Mr. Smith of counsel for the defense, and Mr. D. C. Tracy, for the prosecution, had adjourned on Thursday night without cause of counsel, and without being under the charge of an officer. It is the intention to move an arrest of judgment, and to stay the case on a bill of exceptions.

Dominic Wheately, the same biting off his finger and leg—guilty on both counts. Charles Brown and Moses Oakley, previously convicted of petit larceny, were both sent to the Penitentiary for 6 months. A man of color, who had committed a petit larceny and was captured, was discharged for want of evidence. Admonished to Thursday at 9 o'clock.

Peter Gray—Daniel Connelly withdrew his plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to an indictment for receiving stolen goods. Plea re-arranged and recorded.

The Court then adjourned over to Monday next.

Judge O'Brien. Friday, June 24.—ROMING

RATINGS ON THEIR ORNAMENTS.—Extensive degradations have been committed within the last few months, by gangs of boys from 15 to 18 years of age, on the ratings of many houses in both the eastern and western sides of the city, by wrenching off the ornaments and committing an immense amount of damage, by which means property to the amount of several thousand dollars in the aggregate have been stolen and carried away, officers Reilly and Joseph of the 4th Ward, determined it possible to arrest the offenders. In these they were successful. One of the offenders, in fact, has been identified as Hugh Hogan, John McNamee, John Joseph James, Morris Welch, Chas. Watson, William Maguire, Lemuel Griffith, William Clinton, Thomas Kirk, John Boyd, Benjamin C. and J. W. McNamee, Sandy McHolland, and others, all whom have committed the offense. There were a number of others conjectured who are not yet arrested. The ornaments, which cost 10 to 15 cents per pound, were sold to various junk shop keepers in the city, for 5 cents a pound. Amongst the house ratings thus stripped was that of the Mayor.
